

INNOVATOR

UFI Group¹ Code of Ethics

CONTENTS

1.	Introduction to the Code of Ethics	Pag.	2
2.	Code of Ethics' Values	Pag.	2
2.1	Responsibility	Pag.	2
2.2	Transparency	Pag.	3
2.3	Fairness and integrity	Pag.	3
2.4	The value of human capital	Pag.	4
2.5	Efficiency and top performance	Pag.	5
3.	Relationship with the stakeholders	Pag.	6
3.1	Internal relationships	Pag.	6
3.2	Customers	Pag.	8
3.3	Suppliers	Pag.	9
3.4	Public authorities and governmental bodies	Pag.	9
3.5	Universities and other Research Organizations	Pag.	9
3.6	Industrial Associations and Round Table of Industrialists	Pag.	9
3.7	Trade Unions and Political Parties	Pag.	9
3.8	Local communities	Pag.	9
3.9	Media	Pag.	10
4.	Corporate governance and internal control system, Audit activities	Pag.	10
4.1	Corporate governance and internal control system	Pag.	10
4.2	Audit activities	Pag.	11
5.	Implementation of the Code of Ethics	Pag.	11
5.1	Dissemination of the Code of Ethics, updates and training	Pag.	11
5.2	Commitment to comply with the Code of Ethics	Pag.	11
5.3	Reporting of Violations	Pag.	11
5.4	Sanctions	Pag.	12

¹ In this document UFI Group shall mean any and all of the UFI Group's legal entities.

UFI Group Code of Ethics

1. Introduction to the Code of Ethics

The UFI Group performs its internal and external activities in accordance with the principles and values set out in this Code of Ethics.

The UFI Group fosters the ethical values in conducting the business, in the belief that business ethics must be pursued together with the business success.

This Code of Ethics has been approved by the Board of Directors of UFI Filters and summarizes the UFI Group's business conduct Values as well as the UFI Group recommendations to act and commit in all business activities in compliance and pursuing these values.

This Code of Ethics is addressed to all the UFI Group directors, officers, managers, employees, workers and of all other individuals who act on behalf of UFI Group companies.

Furthermore, UFI Group shall use its best endeavors to ensure that this Code of Ethics is considered as a best practice model of business conduct by those third parties with whom the UFI Group companies maintains business relationships such as counsels, advisors, agents, dealers, distributors, customers and suppliers.

2. Code of Ethics' Values

This Code of Ethics is applied in all the countries in which the UFI Group operates and it applies to all aspects of the UFI Group's business.

The "Values" of ethical conduct adopted by UFI Group and shared throughout its entire organization are:

- 2.1 Responsibility;
- 2.2 Transparency;
- 2.3 Fairness and integrity;
- 2.4 The value of human capital;
- 2.5 Efficiency and top performance.

2.1 Responsibility

The UFI Group makes responsible use of resources, consistent with the aim of achieving sustainable development, evaluating the consequences of its actions, considering the impact on the community and the environment.

Organizational mechanisms of prevention

The UFI Group creates organizational mechanisms to prevent breaches by its directors, officers, managers, employees, workers and of all other individuals who act on behalf of UFI Group companies of the rules and principles of transparency, propriety and fairness, and it checks that these rules and principles are adhered to and put into effect.

Protection of assets

The UFI Group defends and protects its corporate assets, and shall procure the means for preventing acts of embezzlement, theft, and fraud against the UFI Group. Any unlawful or improper use of UFI Group's assets is prohibited. All directors, officers, managers, employees, workers and of all other individuals who act on behalf of UFI Group companies, without exception, must use UFI Group assets to serve the best interests of UFI Group.

Protection of assets, confidential information and intellectual property

All UFI Group's information and records must be accurate, secure and managed systematically to protect the interests of UFI Group and individual rights. UFI Group respects the intellectual property of its business partners and competitors just as it expects its own intellectual property to be respected. All directors, officers, managers, employees, workers and of all other individuals who act on behalf of UFI Group companies, without exception, must maintain the confidentiality of protected or sensitive information acquired in the course of their functions.

Being member of the communities

The UFI Group is committed, within the Group and in its dealings outside, to complying and securing compliance with local legislation, as befits its role as an active and responsible member of the communities it operates in.

Environment

The UFI Group does its best efforts to comply with any applicable procedures and regulations regarding environmental. In respect of its environmental responsibilities, the UFI Group recommends responsibility towards the environment throughout the supply chain and as such it is committed to encourage its suppliers and sub-suppliers to adopt policies for the environment.

2.2 Transparency

The UFI Group ensures that its action is fully transparent to all its stakeholders, without compromising the confidentiality entailed in running its business; for this reason the recipients of the Code of Ethics must observe the utmost confidentiality regarding the information acquired or derived through or when carrying out their functions.

Accounting practices

UFI Group's accounts and financial reporting must provide a complete and accurate representation of UFI Group's financial position, complying with all applicable accounting rules and meeting the highest standards. In this respect, UFI Group establishes and maintains disclosure controls and procedures. UFI Group shall promptly communicate to the reporting officers or to the financial department any and all material information in order to ensure that it is accurately reflected in UFI Group's reporting and disclosure documents. No payment shall be made on behalf of UFI Group without being linked to a duly approved business transaction.

External relations

Transparency is an attitude which concerns both the area of company management, which must be clear and verifiable, and communication with outside parties. The completeness and correctness of information given out, plays a fundamental role in the credibility of the company regarding its relations with external parties.

Disclosure to stakeholders

The UFI Group shall communicate openly and honestly to its stakeholders on its performance. Communications must reflect UFI Group's position, be complete and timely, and address all interested stakeholders without any bias or undue privilege.

Governments and communities

In order to establish trust as well as to protect UFI Group's reputation and to support balanced decision-making, UFI Group shall develop healthy relationships with local governments and communities. UFI Group shall respect local cultures and customs and, whenever practicable, facilitate their integration into UFI Group businesses.

2.3 Fairness and integrity

UFI Group conducts business with the highest ethical standards, honors the commitments taken, and is loyal and fair.

Business transactions

Any and all business transactions entered into by UFI Group shall be for the sole purpose of achieving top performance and shall comply with all applicable laws and regulations.

Competitive behaviour

The UFI Group undertakes to perform fair competition, a vital requirement in the pursuit of its own self interest and a guarantee for all market operators, for customers, for business partners and for stakeholders in general.

Avoiding corruption

All directors, officers, managers, employees, workers and of all other individuals who act on behalf of UFI Group companies, without exception, are expected to behave honestly and ethically when dealing with customers, suppliers, employees and officials of governments and administrations. They shall not receive money or material services, favours or gifts from anybody in consideration for business activities of the UFI Group. Gifts of nominal value, entertainment or social invitations are permitted when in line with good business ethics and duly authorized by, or reported to, the appropriate management level. No cash must ever be accepted or offered. All UFI Group entities are expected to communicate this policy against corruption to their business partners.

Conflicts of interest

A conflict of interest exists when an individual's private interest or benefit may influence his or her judgment or action. All directors, officers, managers, employees, workers and of all other individuals who act on behalf of UFI Group companies, without exception, must devote undivided loyalty to the interests of UFI Group, and clearly separate personal interests from the interests of UFI Group. When conflicts of interest arise, the situation must be reported to the appropriate management level and governance bodies, which shall ensure that all decisions potentially affected by the conflict are made in the best interests of the UFI Group.

Political neutrality

UFI Group must not make any form of contribution to political parties or organizations affiliated with them. UFI Group must also avoid real or implied political associations when choosing business partners and making investments.

2.4 The value of human capital

UFI Group believes in openness, trust and simplicity and behaves accordingly. It strives to share knowledge, encourage personal contributions, and develop human capital through coaching, teamwork and training. Everyone in UFI Group is committed and personally involved in the continuous improvement process of UFI Group's human capital.

Respect for the individual

UFI Group shall maintain a culture free of discrimination, where individuals are treated with respect and dignity, independent of religion, race, gender, nationality, political opinion, sexual orientation and physical challenges. All directors, officers, managers, employees, workers and of all other individuals who act on behalf of UFI Group companies, without exception, shall show at all times appropriate consideration and respect for their colleagues, and UFI Group entities shall enforce a zero-tolerance approach to incidents of discrimination or harassment of any kind.

Freedom of association

The directors, officers, managers, employees, workers and of all other individuals who act on behalf of UFI Group companies, without exception, have the right to join or form associations within the framework of local legislation. These rights are balanced by the duties of the same persons towards the UFI Group and by the responsibilities towards other individuals.

Personnel's welfare and development

UFI Group will maintain an environment where employees and workers feel proud to belong to UFI Group and are valued for their contribution. UFI Group will develop individuals and teams through empowerment and continuous learning so that employees and workers have the opportunity to fulfill their potential and improve their competences and qualification.

Human rights

Human rights reflect the inherent dignity of every human being and the standard of treatment to which each of us is entitled. Each UFI Group employee and worker, without exception, is expected to respect and promote human rights, based on accepted international laws and practices, such as the United Nations Declaration of Human Rights, the conventions of the International Labour Organization and the United Nations' Global Compact. All UFI Group entities are expected to ensure that business practices and individual behaviour comply with human rights. Furthermore, UFI Group shall not knowingly conclude business agreements with contractors or suppliers resorting to child labour.

Fair treatment

UFI Group entities will value and encourage teamwork and empower employees and workers to contribute to UFI Group's top performance. The freedom of decision-making that empowerment brings must be accompanied by adequate levels of accountability for behaviour and action. Recruitment, remuneration, opportunities for development and promotion must be based entirely on a fair assessment of ability and performance at every level. UFI Group entities are expected to seek opportunities to enable disadvantaged individuals to achieve excellence in their roles.

Health, safety and security

UFI Group recognizes the duty to provide safety, security and overall well-being to everyone who works for UFI Group, including contractors and visitors to UFI Group's premises. UFI Group entities must ensure that all reasonable steps are taken to maintain the security of employees and workers and eliminate potential causes of workplace accidents or injuries that could damage an individual's health or his/her capacity to do his/her job.

Privacy of personal information

Information relating to employees, workers or business partners must be acquired ethically and lawfully; it must be used only for the purpose to which the parties concerned have consented. UFI Group must take the necessary steps to protect the confidentiality of such information. Individuals must be provided with reasonable access to their personal files and must have the opportunity to review and correct them, when applicable.

2.5 Efficiency and top performance

UFI Group strives for delivering quality, ensuring customer satisfaction and creating value for itself, its shareholders and all its partners. UFI Group intends to achieve this top performance by being responsive, encouraging innovation, and developing competences. UFI Group acts with full responsibility and accountability, and with discipline and dedication, basing decisions on facts and focusing priorities on anything that benefits first and foremost the UFI Group and its achievement of top performance.

Innovation

UFI Group is committed to sustaining a high level of product innovation, listening to customers and striving to anticipate and fulfill their needs and expectations. Pursuing excellence and never accepting current standards as good enough. Constantly looking out for opportunities to upgrade existing products, systems and/or solutions.

Quality and customers expectation

Ensuring the maximum quality of products as well as the excellence of production systems and processes. Maintaining an unflagging commitment to performance as a way of meeting customer expectations in terms of safety and service delivery. Product quality and customer satisfaction are cornerstones of UFI Group's values and business strategies.

Integration

Appreciating how a given action fits into the wider scheme of events. Co-operating across functions and different countries to achieve common goals. Raising efficiency and facilitating change while ensuring that duplication of effort is kept to a minimum

Business partners

In all commercial relationships with customers, suppliers and other business partners, UFI Group shall develop mutually beneficial partnerships. When entering into business relationships, UFI Group shall ensure that its partners respect and support values that are in line with its Values and that they have adopted similar standards of business conduct, or that they commit to do so.

Shareholders

UFI Group's primary obligation is to create sustainable economic value for all shareholders. Profit is necessary to provide security and future opportunities for all stakeholders. UFI Group shall achieve this through sound growth of profitable businesses, maintenance of state of the art technologies, continuous innovation and learning, careful management of resources, tight control of expenses and firm execution of projects.

3. Relationship with the stakeholders

The UFI Group is committed to conducting and improving its relationships with all of its stakeholders; for this purpose the UFI Group ensures that all its activities are performed in good faith, with loyalty, fairness, transparency and with due respect for the UFI Group's Code of Ethics' Values.

3.1 Internal relationships

The Code of Ethics is considered to be an integral and important part of UFI Group personnel employment relationship. Consequently the UFI Group expects that all directors, officers, managers and other employees and workers strictly comply with all of the provisions of the Code of Ethics. Any violation will be treated seriously and sanctions will be imposed accordingly: termination of employment may occur in specific cases. All directors, officers, managers and other employees and workers shall:

- ✓ read and understand the Code of Ethics and, if necessary, attend training courses;
- ✓ act and behave in a manner consistent with the Code of Ethics, refraining from any conduct that might damage the UFI Group or jeopardize the UFI Group's reputation;
- ✓ promptly and in good faith report any violations of the Code of Ethics to the Supervisory Board;
- ✓ adhere to all internal procedures introduced by the relevant UFI Group company with the purpose of complying with the Code of Ethics or of identifying violations of the Code of Ethics;
- ✓ consult with the Legal Department for explanations regarding interpretation of the Code of Ethics;
- ✓ cooperate in any investigation regarding Code of Ethics violations, maintaining strict confidentiality regarding the existence of said investigations and participating actively, where requested, in audit activities on the implementation of the Code of Ethics.

Safe and healthy work environment

UFI Group is committed to take care of the moral integrity and physical wellbeing of its employees, workers and of all other individuals who act on behalf of UFI Group. UFI Group recognizes health and safety in the workplace as a fundamental right of employees and workers and a key element of the UFI Group's sustainability. To that end, the UFI Group promotes responsible and safe behaviour and adopts all measures required by technological changes to guarantee a safe and healthy work environment. The UFI Group also seeks to ensure industry leading working conditions, in accordance with principles of hygiene, industrial ergonomics and individual organizational and operational processes. The UFI Group believes in and actively promotes the dissemination of a culture of accident prevention and risk awareness among workers, in particular through the provision of adequate training and information. Employees and workers are required to be personally responsible and to take the preventive measures established by the UFI Group for the protection of their health and safety and communicated through specific directions, instructions, information and training. Each employee and/or worker is responsible for proper management of safety and should not expose him/herself or other workers to dangers, which could cause injuries or be damaging for themselves. Employees and workers and all other individuals who act on behalf of UFI Group are also required to prevent any situation which may prevent the best work environment, such as:

- being at work under the influence of alcohol, drugs or similar substances;
- not using protective items where they are obligatory;
- not respecting the non-smoking regulations.

Respect of individuals

Any UFI Group company is committed to guarantee respect of individuals and to prevent discriminatory behaviour of any kind. The UFI Group requires the collaboration of everyone to maintain the respect for the dignity, honour and reputation of every individual. The UFI Group ensures the respect of personal rights regarding race, class, nationality, religion, sexual orientation, disability, age, political or trade union affiliations. The UFI Group requests all addressees of the Code of Ethics to follow the legal requirements regarding the dignity of men and women at work, avoiding and reporting any form of sexual or moral harassment. Any UFI Group company is committed to prevent any bullying or violent behaviour (psychological abuse, harassment, persecution, demotion, marginalization, humiliation, slander, ostracism, etc) carried out by superiors or colleagues on workers. Workers who consider themselves to have been subject to the above may refer the incident to the internal control bodies (if any), the statutory auditors and/or to the Supervisory Board, who will determine any effective violation of the Code of Ethics.

Equal opportunities

The UFI Group is committed to providing equal opportunities to all its personnel, both on the job and in their career advancement. The head of each department shall ensure that in every aspect of the employment relationship, such as recruitment, training, compensation, promotion, transfer and termination, employees and workers are treated according to their abilities to meet job requirements and all decisions are free from any form of discrimination, in particular, discrimination based on race, gender, sexual orientation, social and personal position, physical and health condition, disability, age, nationality, religion or personal beliefs.

Hiring

Hiring should be made according to the appropriate labour legislation where applicable. Once hired, every employee and worker should receive details of their remuneration, rules and procedures to avoid health and safety risks, and internal rules about data privacy and use of computer equipment. The treatment of employees and workers is in accordance with their level of service, duties performed and professional qualifications. For the same duties the same training opportunities should be available.

Remuneration and working hours

Compensation and benefits paid to the UFI Group's personnel will satisfy at least the applicable legal requirement. In relation to working time and paid leave, UFI Group complies with local legislation and business practices of the country in which operates.

Personnel's behaviour

Employees and workers are committed to respect duties included in this Code of Ethics and local law and to carry out their duties with integrity, correctness, loyalty and in good faith. It is required that a decorous dress code is followed, that appropriate language is used, and in general that a behaviour based on mutual respect is respected.

Conflict of interest

UFI Group directors, officers, managers and other employees and workers should avoid any situation or activity which could give rise to a possible conflict. It is forbidden, whilst carrying out duties for the UFI Group, to enter into economic relationships – either personally or through immediate family members – which would be in conflict with the interests of the same UFI Group, such as having economic relations with a supplier either directly or through immediate family members or accepting money or other consideration from persons or companies who intend to enter into relations with the UFI Group companies. When there is the risk of such occurrence of a conflict of interest, the employee or worker is obliged to communicate this to the internal control bodies (if any), the statutory auditors and/or to the Supervisory Board.

Outside Activities

All UFI Group directors, officers, managers, employees and workers shall not serve on board of directors of other companies without UFI Group's approval and shall not undertake in other business activities that may interfere with their UFI Group related duties.

Gifts

Employees and workers may not ask, either for themselves or for others, gifts or other gratuities; neither should they accept them, except where they are of insignificant value, in order that third party may obtain benefit from the UFI Group companies. Gifts and gratuities offered must be communicated to the internal audit function (if any) or to Supervisory Board so that they can carry out an evaluation. UFI Group has also established a standard behaviour for gifts to third parties. For this reason, employees may not offer gifts or other consideration to third parties who may attempt to receive preferential treatment from the UFI Group companies.

Obligations regarding company information and assets

Every employee and worker is obliged to refrain from communicating to third parties, without specific authorization, confidential information regarding projects or bids in process, agreements or company procedures. For the sake of clarity, research projects for new products, current research and contract conditions with both suppliers and customers are strictly confidential: they must not be distributed outside the UFI Group without specific authorisation. UFI Group assets include physical assets, for example plant and machinery, tooling, motor vehicles, furniture, computer hardware and software, as well as intangibles such as know-how, technical knowledge and confidential information developed within the UFI Group. The protection and conservation of these assets is a fundamental value for the UFI Group and employees and workers are responsible while carrying out their duties, not just to protect those assets but also to prevent fraudulent or improper use; all UFI Group directors, officers, managers and other employees and workers have the responsibility to protect the such assets and resources against loss, theft, and unauthorized use or disposal.

Use of IT equipment, internet and e-mails

Computers, laptops, smartphones, etc., are entrusted to employees by specific authorizations. These instruments are work instruments and are not assigned for private used. They must only be used for professional purposes, by means of programmes which are strictly necessary, installed and authorized by IT manager. Installation of unauthorised programmes is forbidden. Where a UFI Group computer has access to the internet, it may only be used for work purposes and however according to any internal guidelines. The email addresses of UFI Group employees are a company asset and as such they must be limited exclusively to professional purposes; it being understood that UFI Group may have access to such email addresses to protect company's interests.

Privacy and data protection

The UFI Group assures the privacy of its personnel according to the provisions of local laws and commits to keep personal data private, except when required by law and when the employee gives his specific authorization.

Accountability and accounting principles

The UFI Group fully respects the principles of transparency, completeness and accuracy of the information contained in the accounting records. All UFI Group directors, officers, managers, employees and workers are responsible for ensuring that such principles are respected.

Respect of the applicable law and regulations, accuracy and clearness of data and processes shall lead the preparation of the accounts, budget and financial statements.

UFI Group directors, officers, managers, employees and workers must give utmost and prompt collaboration to all the internal control bodies (if any), the statutory auditors and the Supervisory Board who in the carrying out of their duties may request information and documentation about the accountability of any UFI Group company (as set forth under Section 4).

3.2 Customers

The UFI Group aspires to fully meet the expectations of its customers. All directors, officers, managers, employees, workers and of all other individuals who act on behalf of UFI Group companies should act so as to exceed customers expectations and continuously improve the quality of the UFI Group products and services.

The UFI Group considers of utmost importance that its customers are always treated fairly and honestly and therefore demands to its directors, officers, managers, employees, workers and to the other individuals to whom the Code of Ethics applies, to manage any relationship and contact with customers with honesty, professional integrity and transparency.

Any relationship between any of the UFI Group companies and their customers shall not discriminate unfairly between customers in dealing with them nor shall they unfairly use bargaining position to a customer's disadvantage.

3.3 Suppliers

The procurement and supply process plays a vital role in improving the UFI Group's overall structural competitiveness. In order to constantly ensure the highest level of customer satisfaction at all times, the UFI Group selects suppliers, through the use of adequate and objective methods, on the basis of the quality, innovation, costs and services offered, as well as their social and environmental performance and the values outlined by the Code of Ethics.

All UFI Group directors, officers, managers and other employees and workers are expected to establish and maintain stable, transparent and cooperative relations with suppliers.

3.4 Public authorities and governmental bodies

Relations with public authorities and governmental bodies shall be managed only by duly designated managers and other individuals who act on behalf of UFI Group.

All such relations must be transparent and conducted in accordance with UFI Group's Code of Ethics' Values.

The UFI Group will fully co-operate with regulatory and governmental bodies and should one or more UFI Group companies be subjected to legitimate inspections by the public authorities, the UFI Group will provide its full cooperation.

3.5 Universities and other Research Organizations

The UFI Group is also committed to contributing to the technological development and to collaborating with universities and other organizations in researching and developing innovative solutions in the fields of fluid filtration and fluid process solutions.

3.6 Industrial Associations and Round Table of Industrialists

Any lobbying activity shall be conducted only where permitted by applicable law and in strict compliance with such laws and, in any case, in full observance of the Code of Ethics and of any procedures to such extent specifically provided by the UFI Group.

The UFI Group aims to contribute positively to the future development of regulations and standards in the automotive industry and in all other sectors of relevance for the fields of fluid filtration and fluid process solutions.

3.7 Trade Unions and Political Parties

Any relationship of the UFI Group with trade unions, political parties and representatives or candidates thereof shall be conducted with the highest level of transparency and fairness and in strict compliance with applicable laws.

Contributions of money, goods, services, or other benefits are prohibited unless required or expressly permitted by law and, in the latter case, authorized by the duly empowered corporate bodies of the relevant company of the UFI Group.

Any contribution made or activity performed by employees of the UFI Group shall be intended only as a personal voluntary contribution.

3.8 Local communities

The UFI Group is aware that its decisions can have significant impacts, direct and indirect, on the local communities in which it operates. Accordingly, the UFI Group shall take all reasonable steps to inform those communities of relevant actions and projects and shall promote an open dialogue to ensure that their legitimate expectations are taken into due consideration. Moreover the UFI Group seeks to contribute to the social, economic and institutional development of local communities through specific projects.

UFI Group personnel is asked to behave in a socially responsible manner by respecting the cultures and traditions of each country in which the UFI Group operates and acting with integrity and good faith in order to merit the trust of the community.

3.9 Media

All the communication of information to the media must be based on the principles of truth, transparency, accuracy and prudence, respecting the UFI Group ethical Values and and in strict compliance with UFI Group policies.

Only the persons who are responsible for media communications can provide information to media operators, or liaise in any way with them to disclose UFI Group confidential information. No other director, officer, manager or other employee and workers may provide any information, not in the public domain, concerning the UFI Group.

4. Corporate governance and internal control system, Audit activities

4.1 Corporate governance and internal control system

The Code of Ethics constitutes a fundamental element of the Corporate Governance of the UFI Group.

Any individual within the UFI Group having a role as supervisor, department head or company executive must act and provide leadership and guidance in accordance with the business and ethical Values, fostering transparency in business activities.

UFI Group will do this by applying the maximum level of transparency consistent with best business practice with the aim of:

- establishing rigorous business processes to ensure that management decisions (including those relating to investments and disposals) are based on effective risk assessment (which shall include a sound economic analysis), and provide a guarantee that company assets are properly used;
- identifying, understanding and managing risks to all UFI Group assets with professional diligence;
- guaranteeing the maximum fairness and transparency in the handling of transactions with third parties;
- ensuring that all transactions and commitments are duly authorized, verifiable and legitimate;
- ensuring that all transactions and commitments are timely, properly and accurately recorded, accounted for and duly documented in accordance with the relevant accounting principles and best practices;
- ensuring the production of comprehensive, accurate, reliable, clear and comprehensible financial reports on a timely basis;
- ensuring that decisions on finance, tax and accounting issues, are made at the proper level of management and in full compliance with applicable laws;
- ensuring the presentation of the documentation to be to be filed internally and/or to be disclosed to the public in timely fashion and making sure that this documentation is comprehensive, accurate, reliable, clear and comprehensible.

The efficiency and effectiveness of the internal control system are essential for operating the business activities, in line with the rules and Values of this Code of Ethics.

A proper internal control system ensures the following aims:

- the efficacy and efficiency of business operations, so also guaranteeing that documents and decisions are traceable;
- the reliability of accounting and management information;
- the compliance with laws and regulations;
- the safekeeping of UFI Group assets.

For all the purposes above, the recipients of the Code of Ethics are required to contribute to the constant improvement of the internal control system.

All UFI Group directors, officers, managers, employees and workers shall act so as to maintain effective the internal control systems; to achieve this they are, inter alia, expected to keep accurate and complete internal records of all business activities and procure that appropriate authorization of transactions and commitments with business partners has been duly given by the appropriate supervisor.

In so far as they are responsible, all directors, officers, managers and other employees and workers – who are asked to cooperate on the preparation and presentation of documents to be filed internally and/or to be disclosed to the public – shall ensure that such documents are complete, accurate, reliable, clear and comprehensible.

Furthermore, business expenses are to be reported in an accurate and timely manner, they must be supported by precise documentation and must respect internal procedures.

4.2 Audit activities

In carrying out their work and in connection with their separate spheres of responsibility, the internal control bodies (if any), the statutory auditors and the Supervisory Board enjoy direct, full, and unfettered access all personnel, activities, operations, documents, archives, and assets of the business.

Specifically, the Supervisory Board performs periodic audit activities on the operation of and compliance with the Code of Ethics; the results of such audit activities are presented to the Chief Executive Officer and/or Managing Director (if appointed) of the UFI Group company and to the Board of Directors.

5. Implementation of the Code of Ethics

5.1 Dissemination of the Code of Ethics, updates and training

The UFI Group is responsible for the timely dissemination of the Code of Ethics throughout the UFI Group and to all persons to whom the Code of Ethics is addressed.

The UFI Group shall ensure that all updates and amendments to the Code of Ethics are provided on a timely basis to all persons to whom the Code of Ethics is addressed.

The UFI Group undertakes to provide appropriate training activities on the right implementation of Code of Ethics.

Furthermore, the UFI Group shall offer any additional support in relation to any question regarding the interpretation of the Code of Ethics.

5.2 Commitment to comply with the Code of Ethics

The UFI Group commits to achieving the highest standards of best practice in relation to the Values set forth in this Code of Ethics and requires that the conduct of all the recipients of this Code of Ethics is consistent with such Values.

Accordingly, there is a duty on all recipients of this Code of Ethics to avoid any action that conflicts with the general Values stated herein.

Every director, officer, manager, employee, worker and other person who act on behalf of UFI Group companies plays a fundamental role in how well UFI Group adheres to these Values; if any director, officer, manager, employee, worker or other person who act on behalf of UFI Group companies, thinks that these Values are being violated, or has a problem applying them, or has any suggestion about these Values, he/she is invited to discuss the issue with his/her manager.

The UFI Group encourages personnel to solicit guidance from the Supervisory Board and the Legal Department in any situation regarding the Code of Ethics in which they may be in doubt as to the most appropriate behaviour. Furthermore, for queries relating to specific provisions or requiring clarification of the Code of Ethics, employees are also encouraged to contact the Supervisory Board and/or the Legal Department of UFI Group

5.3 Reporting of Violations

If an UFI Group employee wishes to report a violation (or suspected violation) of the Code of Ethics, he/she should contact his/her direct supervisor. If the grievance remains unresolved, or the employee feels uncomfortable reporting the grievance to the direct supervisor, he/she should report it to the Supervisory Board and/or the Legal Department using any reporting mechanism designed for this purpose, such as the confidential e-mail address odv@it.ufifilters.com².

If a third party wishes to report a violation (or suspected violation) of the Code of Ethics, he/she should contact the Supervisory Board and/or the Legal Department, using any reporting mechanism designed for this purpose such as the confidential e-mail address odv@it.ufifilters.com.

5.4 Sanctions

Any behavior that does not conform to the provisions of this Code of Ethics entails – independently of and leaving aside any criminal action against the offender – the application of disciplinary sanctions pursuant to existing legislation and/or collective agreements and/or by specific contract.

Appropriate sanctions for Code of Ethics violations shall be adopted by the direct supervisors, after hearing the opinion of the competent HR Department and of the Legal Department.

The sanction shall be consistent with existing laws and relevant national labour contracts, and shall be proportionate to the particular violation of the Code of Ethics.

Code of Ethics violations may lead, among other consequences including legal proceedings, to the termination of any fiduciary relationship between the UFI Group and the applicable employee or worker, with the contractual and statutory consequences set forth in the applicable labour legislation.

² In Italy any report of violation must necessarily be done to the Supervisory Board (i.e. the “Organismo di Vigilanza” established in accordance with the provisions of Legislative Decree 231/2001) through the e-mail address odv@it.ufifilters.com. Reports must be not anonymous, but the Company and the Supervisory Board protect employees and third party collaborators from any adverse consequences arising from such reporting, ensuring the confidentiality of the informants, subject to any applicable law requirements.